| Appropriations Committee, an unclassified paper describing   |                   |     |
| account which had been set up for Radio Free Europe and Rad  | lio Liberty.      |     |
| This was in response to Woodruff's request last Friday. Woo his interest in this stemmed from desire                       | to free a portion | 25  |
| of this money to cover partial liquidation expenses which have   | e been incurred   |     |
| by both RFE and RL. He said arrangements had been made v   | vith Jim Frye,    |     |
| OMB, for them to send a letter to Chairmen Mahon and Ellen their intention to release $1.2 million from the termination a | ccount to the     |     |
| Radios at this time, and the Chairmen will indicate their agree  | eement with       |     |
| this.  Woodruff also mentioned he had been very pleased wit  | h the way the     |     |
| entire intelligence community budget hearings had gone. He   | said Dr. Hall     | 2   |
| had done a good job and had given a very good p  | resentation.      |     |
